

Seminar course for PhD students, 7,5 hp

For registering seminar attendance

The purpose of the seminar course is to stimulate participation in the department's seminars and to acknowledge their scholarly value for the PhD student.

By signing below, the seminar leader acknowledges that the PhD student has participated in the seminar in question, and notes in the margin if the PhD student has acted appointed opponent in an RP, middle or final seminar.

For each seminar a document of 1–2 pages should be prepared by the PhD student and submitted via email to peter.svensson@fek.lu.se. This document should deal with the key points of the seminar and raise some questions in relation to the topic/problems dealt with there.

Seminar points are awarded for presence in seminars on the department level (i.e. not for research group/project meetings/paper presentations), RP, middle and final seminars, seminars with international presenters announced at the department, disputations (licentiate and PhD). Contact Peter Svensson if in doubt. Seminar attendance with hand-in are awarded 1,5 hp and opponent in RP, middle and final seminars 3 hp each.
